Summer is historically a challenging time for blood collections, and this August is no different. In the next three weeks, Carter BloodCare is projecting significant shortfalls in our community's available blood inventory. Please consider donating blood at our blood drive being held in the gym TODAY, from 9:00 am until 1:30 pm.

Changes at Arms of Hope

Brittany Allen Klabunde will be having twins due in October. Brittany plans to take maternity leave from her daily duties of managing the Denton Family Outreach Single Mother's Program. Brittany will resume her duties in January, but only part time. Arms of Hope has hired Karen Black as a full time case manager to assist Brittany and assume some of her responsibilities while she is on leave

Karen Black comes to Denton from The Arms of Hope Medina campus where she was a full time case manager. Karen has been with AOH for seventeen years where she has had hands on experience assisting single moms and their children transition into successful and independent futures. Karen has a daughter and a brand new grand baby living in Denton so the move from south Texas was a blessing beyond measure. Karen grew up as a resident with her mom at Medina Children's Home. That experience planted the seed that grew into Karen wanting to give back. In addition to her daughter, Karen also has two sons. One son is a senior at Texas A&M and will graduate in 2018, and a son who lives in Medina and whose wife is an administrative assistant at Arms of Hope. It is indeed a small world. God's blessings continue to be poured out to enrich the lives of his people and Karen will be a blessing to the Denton Family Outreach Single Mothers Program Denton.

Church Conflict

This is the title of the new book written by Durward Bradshaw a long time member here at Singing Oaks. As the title suggests, the book deals with conflict in the church, and is written primarily, but not exclusively, for those "who occupy the pews" to Christians who just want to do the right thing for God, their families, and their congregation. Durward along with the co-author Linda Thompson are passionate about creating unity in churches by preventing and remedying conflict among church members. The authors use scripture and common sense in dealing with subjects like humility, communication and tradition as it relates to the healthiness of a church. Durward Bradshaw holds a graduate certificate in conflict resolution from Abilene Christian University and is retired from United Airlines where he was a senior captain on a Boeing 777. The book is listed on Amazon if you would like a copy.

Welcome to Singing Oaks Church of Christ

We are glad you are here! If you are new to Singing Oaks, we want to assure you that our purpose in coming together is to give honor to God in our worship, and to try to do everything in a manner pleasing to Him.

On the Journey

Join us, September 10, during Bible class hour at 9:45 in room #123B in the south hallway. This is a time you can learn about the ministries this church is involved in and how you can best get connected. Minister Bob Bentley along with some of our church leaders will be there to answer any questions you might have. Coffee and pastries will be served.

Dear Singing Oaks Family,
We find words inadequate when attempting to express our sincere gratitude for your influence on assisting Leroy Williamson during his recovery period. You have offered prayers to our Heavenly Father, sent cards and food, above all you have shown the love of Christ through all your deeds and words. His recovery is not over, but with your continued support and love he will attack this hurdle with determination that God has given him throughout his 96 years!
You are a blessing to Leroy and to our entire family!
Sincerely,
The Williamson Family

A GIANT THANK YOU to so many of you who served and donated in many different ways to the CCC First Flight Week events!!! You were a tremendous blessing!
We have been blessed with an awesome start to our year! ~The Christian Campus Community-CCC
