Answers: There Is Power.
#2.

“Wind Power.”

March 3rd 2019.

There is more. There is power, the power of the Holy Spirit for all who believe in Jesus. That power is elemental and life giving. It is water, wind and fire. Last week we talked about water and the soul’s thirst for the Living God. Water is life itself. This week we will talk about the power of the wind.

The Holy Spirit Is A _____ Wind.
(Acts 2:1-4).

The Holy Spirit _____ Us.

The Holy Spirit Is Mighty To _____.

The Holy Spirit Is Our _____.
(Genesis 2:7; John 20:22; 2Timothy 3:16; 1Corinthians 12:3).

What Does This Mean?

First: You Need To Be _____ In His Presence.

Second: You Need To _____ God’s Word.

Third: You Need To _____.

The Spirit Doesn’t Serve Your Agenda. Allow Him
_____.(John 3:8).

Grow Group Questions for March 3rd 2019.

1. What do you think the Holy Spirit is doing in your life right now? Do you have a God Story?
2. Where do you think the Spirit might be leading you ultimately?
3. What from the sermon impacted you most?
4. In the sermon this week I said that the Spirit is “a mighty rushing wind.” Texans and Okies are no strangers to high winds. Have you ever been in a tornado or a hurricane? What was it like?
5. Have you ever been in a spiritual hurricane? Were you caught in it or people you know? What was that like?
6. Have you ever experienced what people in the old days called “revival?” Have you ever seen people in large numbers turning to God?
7. God is mighty to save. Have you ever seen God save someone in a mighty way? How did He save you?
8. In the sermon I said the Holy Spirit is also breath. How have you experienced that intimate gentle presence? Have you experienced it: In silence? In meditation? In the word?
9. Jesus told Nicodemus that if you are born again that the Spirit blows in your life like the wind. The wind blows however it wants and it’s not predictable. The wind can seem random, but it’s not. How have you experienced that? Have you experienced “random things” that were not by chance but by God?
10. How did you get to know God more this week?
