Grow Group Questions for March 31st 2019.

1. Does anyone have a praise report? How has the Spirit been moving in your life?
2. I said in the sermon that we live in an “instant culture.” We stay very occupied ...and often preoccupied. When have you taken time to “stop and smell the coffee?” What did you get out of that time?
3. I asked the question, “Are you taking advantage of time or is time taking advantage of you?” Well, what’s your answer? In what ways?
4. It takes time to form relationships: 40-60 hours together to form a casual friendship; 80-100 hours to make a good friend; 200 hours or more to forge a best friend relationship. In whom and to what extent are you investing in your friendships?
5. How deep are your friendships? Who are your spiritual connections? Whom do you seek out for guidance? Who comes to you?
6. What are the most important things in your life?... How much time do you give to each of them? Does the time allotted match the order of priority?
7. You have noticed that when you experience joy time goes very quickly. Describe a recent experience of joy. The whole Christian experience is supposed to be one of joy. (Hebrews 12:1-3; James 1:2; Philippians 4:4). Tell us about your experience of joy in the Lord.
8. If you were to live your life over again what would you do differently?
9. How do you think God wants you to rise up and seize the day?
10. Christ has redeemed your past. And God is in your future. What future do you think God has in store for you? What is He calling you to? What obstacle does he want you to overcome?
