Grow Group Questions for April 21st.

1. What from the sermon, "Our Resurrection," impacted you most?

2. In the sermon I said, "Any area of your life for which you have no hope and no divine anticipation is under the influence of a lie." What is the area of your life where you need resurrection?

Take time to pray for:

- One another in the group.
- Other people in your lives who need that rebirth of hope.

(Be specific in your prayers. What is the miracle you need to see?)

3. I said, "You must be bold to share in the resurrection." The boldness of the women, even in a culture where women's testimony carried little weight, was compelling. It led to breakthrough.

- "You often experience breakthrough through the experience of another person." Who has led you to breakthrough? What was the nature of the breakthrough?
- Whom might God be calling you lead to spiritual breakthrough at this time?

...Well folks, that's more than enough if you can get engaged. But no one and certainly not yours truly, can script a great conversation. Lol. ... Let alone script the Holy Spirit. Some of you are such good talkers that I could put lousy questions out there and you'd still make it great! And of course, the best questions in the world will do no good if they die stillborn on the page. The important thing is that the questions be your own authentic burning questions. And that is why I always lead with some version of question one. All the best to you! Dig deep. Get real. Get to the heart.
