

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

GROW GROUP

Answers: Finding God.
#3.

“Unafraid.”

May 12th 2019.

Mother’s Day holds so many emotions for all of us: whether you are here with your mom or you have lost your mom; whether you had a great relationship or a troubled relationship. This morning we are going to talk about the ultimate mother... Jesus’ mother, Mary. (Luke 1:26-38).

God’s Spirit Falls On _____ People Who Are
Willing To Be Put Out.

Our Greatest Enemy Is _____.

It’s Not About What We _____ Do. It’s About What
God _____ Do.(James 4:13-15).

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.

Grow Group Questions for May 12th

1. What from the sermon, “Unafraid,” impacted you most?
2. Mary was an ordinary girl with an ordinary name. But God puts His Spirit on ordinary people who are willing to be put out. He is an extraordinary God. Yet our greatest enemy is fear. .
 - What is your fear?
 - Faith means taking a risk. There is no risk free faith. What is the risk God is asking you (or us) to take? What risk are you willing to take?
3. I said that it’s not about what we can’t do. It’s about what God can do. He doesn’t need your ability... just your availability.
 - Are you available right now for God? Could He get your attention right now? What do you think He is saying to you right now?
 - How can you become available?

Above are the questions I see driving towards the objective of answering the question, “How can we, like Mary, be God carriers?” Other questions that might bear fruit:

- When have you answered God’s call? What was it?
- Giving birth is painful and requires endurance. Giving birth to Jesus is painful in every generation. What do you think that pain is like today in our society?
- The angel told Mary that she had “found favor.” God’s favor is amazing but it’s no walk in the park. It doesn’t mean comfort or status. Describe your experience of God’s favor.