“The Legacy Of Faith.”

May 19th 2019.

The sermon this morning is a call to faith. Real faith is more than trust in institutional authority. And it is more than trust in our own ability to grasp what’s going on. Real faith realizes that there is more than we know or can know. 1 Corinthians 13:9-13.

Real Faith Is Always _____.
(Hebrews 11:1-3, Luke 17:6)

Grow Group Questions for May 19th.

1. What from the sermon, "The Legacy of Faith," impacted you most?
2. I said that "real faith knows that this side of heaven there is always more. Real faith continues its legacy of faith and leaves its own legacy. Real faith preserves the fire of the past... not the ashes."
  - How has your faith grown through the years? What was the cause?
  - How has your faith changed over the years? What have you let go of?
3. I said, "Real faith always meets resistance."
  - What resistance has your faith met?
  - What obstacles has your faith had to overcome?

Above are the questions which explore the topic, "What does real faith look like?" I closed the sermon with three questions: Are you surrounded by faith? Are you building your faith? And what do you have faith for? If you have time you could bear down on those questions.

- Who or what are the influences that have built you up in your faith? Who or what has sapped your faith?
- When have you put yourself out there... or had the Holy Spirit put you out there?
- What "impossible" thing do you need God to do in your life?
